

The Do Not Call List is the best thing to happen to telecommunications since the invention of the telephone! If the marketing companies are not going to pay my phone bill, then they have no right to use my phone as a marketing tool. I am entitled to quiet enjoyment of my home - and I finally have it!!